

Join the ASSET Professional Development Team for an inspiring day of keynote speakers, breakout sessions, and networking opportunities planned just for you – Arizona PreK-12 teachers and administrators!

DATE:

Saturday, June 6, 2009 8:00am – 3:30pm
 Continental Breakfast & Lunch Included

LOCATION:

ASU's Walter Cronkite School of Journalism & Mass Communication Building
 555 N. Central, Phoenix, AZ

FEATURING:

Speakers:

Austin Vickers Stepping Up: to a Life of Vision, Passion and Authentic Power – Business & Industry Leadership Strategy for Educators
Lisa Henson Science for Preschoolers & Henson Digital Puppetry with a special visit from Sid the Science Kid!

Three Strands of Breakout Sessions:

- 1 - Project Based Learning ~ Digital Storytelling (PreK-Grade 12) featuring
 American Experience "We Shall Remain" Eight's Arizona Stories
 Tools such as Frames and Pixie Tools
- 2 - STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering & Math) (Grades 4-12) featuring
 The Challenger Center Mobile Resource Unit WGBH Teachers Domain
 School of Sustainability at Arizona State University
- 3 - Early Childhood (PreK-Grade2) featuring
 KCET's Sid the Science Kid and A Place of Our own PBS Kids Raising Readers—and PBS Kids Island

Institute Exhibitors:

Organizations who give discounts for their services to ASSET Educator members and other non-profit organizations

Companion Online Institute Components include:

- Keynote Online Extensions
- Second Life Environment Introductions
- PBS TeacherLine Online Course Opportunities

REGISTRATION:

Contribute $60 to ASSET/Eight to become an ASSET Educator at www.asset.asu.edu.

ASSET Educator Member = Free Registration

